

Mary Mafusa, Communication, Public Relations, and Administration Consultant

10 Years Experience

Mary has vast experience in public relations and communication, administration support, project management, customer relations, data collection, monitoring of project indicators, report writing, food production, and maintaining accurate and auditable records. Her career pathway has skilled her in the effective management of marketing, advertising, and promotional activities of organizations, with practical experience in developing, establishing, and maintaining marketing strategies to meet desired objectives. Mary is self-motivated and result-oriented, adheres to strict work ethics and deadlines, and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communication and Public Relations from St. Paul's University.