

Mercy Mwikali, Child Rights, Gender and Education Expert

11 Years Experience

With a unique blend of academic excellence, extensive experience spanning over 11 years, and a portfolio of impactful projects, Mercy has demonstrated exceptional expertise in the fields of child protection, education, gender equality, diversity and inclusion, and finance. Her versatility and dedication make her an invaluable asset in the realm of consulting. Mercy's contributions have left an indelible mark on various projects, driving positive change and contributing to the betterment of societies. She has a Master of Business Administration in Finance, a Bachelor of Commerce in Finance, and certifications in Child Protection and Education, Gender and Sexuality Diversity and Inclusion in the Workplace, and Project Monitoring and Evaluation.